MEMBER GUIDE

WELCOME MEMBERS!

This is your community. It's an opportunity to learn, collaborate, contribute and grow, in the company of other business-oriented coaches.

Our goal is to help you become more effective in your service to clients, and more successful in your own business.

A Quick Tour Of The Leading Coaches Center

My Page (in the top right corner) This is your personal showcase, where you present your interests, values and goals to the community. Remember that members will search by keywords, so to make yourself easy to find, use words and phrases in your profile that others might look for. You can update your profile at any time.

Meet Members: Please reach out! For the Leading Coaches Center to give you all the value that's possible, it's essential that you connect with other coaches. You can search people you know by name. Perhaps more important, you can find great individuals you don't yet know by searching for common interests. Just enter a word or phrase, and if it's in a member's profile you'll immediately see that member and be able to connect.

Find Teams: Collaboration is the key to success, especially at the Leading Coaches Center. As the community grows, you'll be able to find Teams for discussion, shared learning, co-creation, marketing endeavors or just fun. And if you fail to find the Team you're looking for, you can instantly start a Team yourself! Just click on "Teams" on your My Page, and then click "Create A Team". Your new Team can be either private or public.

Read about the different features of the community and then click on your Username in the top right corner.

This is why Advantara(R) is forming yet another Global Learning Team for Global Executive Coaching. I invite you to check it out at <http://www.advantara.com>, click on coach education and development...I look forward to seeing this community blossom and thrive with the cross fertilization of the bee and the discerning eye of the eagle.
